IACLE members in Guatemala deliver sponsored contact lens workshop

IACLE members from Universidad Galileo – Guatemala, Josué Molina and Aldo Ortiz, and Henry Martinez from Johnson & Johnson's The Vision Care Institute, Colombia, organized a workshop on 'Fitting soft contact lenses for 10 final-year students (23 June). Dr Martinez (an IACLE member from Colombia) was in charge of workshop development, demonstrating a good synergy between academia and the contact lens industry. IACLE Americas invites members to adopt this kind of initiative. J&J, through its distributor PROAMSA, provided contact lens samples for students to practise.

IACLE members in Perú take part in ISTEM San Fernando Optometry Seminar

IACLE members from Perú, Johnny Huayhua, Javier Villanueva, Renzo Serrano and IACLE's Regional Coordinator Guillermo Carrillo, participated in a recent seminar at the Instituto Superior Tecnológico de Educación Médica (ISTEM) San Fernando, Lima (15 June). IACLE members offered a variety of topics from corneal surface measurement to myopia control and new trends in contact lens practice. The event had more than 200 attendees. IACLE members offered 50% of the scheduled program and had very positive comments from students on social networks.

IACLE in Colombia actively collaborates with FEDOPTO

IACLE members Martha Marquéz and Martín Giraldo delivered lectures at FEDOPTO's Continuing Education Program (PEC) on the anterior segment (30 June). This year IACLE members in Colombia have been very active in collaborating on contact lens education through the initiative of FEDOPTO. FEDOPTO is the optometric professional association in Colombia. In August, IACLE will play a prominent part in the FEDOPTO Congress in Quindío through a full day session on contact lens topics.

...and finally, IACLE members participate in Contact Lens Week in Argentina

IACLE members Sabrina Lara (Argentina), Augusto Rosse (Chile) and Rolando Rojas (Perú) took part in a Contact Lens Week organized by IPEC Community College in Buenos Aires, Argentina from 9-15 June. Pictured (right) is Sabrina delivering a workshop on 'Specialty contact lens fitting'.
