

Special Notice – Live Tuesday Lectures

Tuesday live lectures for IACLE members worldwide

Speakers (clockwise from top left) are Ian Davies, Professor Etty Bitton, Professor James Wolffsohn, Dr Shehzad Naroo and Professor Philip Morgan

Need help with delivering your own online lectures?
A refresher on the latest findings on dry eye?
How to adapt contact lens practice to the COVID-19 scenario?

IACLE members around the world are invited to take part in online lectures on hot topics in contact lenses, broadcast every Tuesday in May.

The second in our series of live narrated lectures will run weekly at 12 noon London time (BST British Summer Time) from Tuesday 5 May to Tuesday 26 May on the Zoom platform. Recorded versions will be posted online and will be accessible via Member Login under Video Resources.

Lectures will be a maximum of one hour, including questions from participants, and will initially be conducted in English. A maximum of 100 participants can take part in each lecture, on a first-come-first-served basis.

Topics and speakers are as follows:

Tuesday 5 May

Topic: How to go about a live lecture

Speaker: Ian Davies, Coach and Consultant. <https://ianseyes.com/about/>

Tuesday 12 May

Topic: Setting up for contact lens success: the tear film and beyond

Speaker: Professor Ety Bitton, University of Montreal, Canada, IACLE Treasurer

Tuesday 19 May

Topic: Contact lens induced dry eye: causes, investigations & management

Speaker: FIACLE Professor James Wolffsohn, Aston University, Birmingham, UK

Tuesday 26 May

Topic: Contact lens practice in the COVID-19 scenario

Speakers: Dr Shehzad Naroo and Professor Philip Morgan IACLE President and Vice President

Links to each live lecture have been sent to paid-up IACLE members in a Special Notice. Recordings of lectures will initially be located under Member Login in the Video Resources section.

Look out for details of more live online lectures to come in 2020.

For more information on Tuesday Lectures, please email Lakshmi Shinde at lak.shinde@gmail.com or contact your local IACLE office.

THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS

